

GOD HAS CHOSEN ME

Mary

1. I guess I thought I really didn't matter,
I guess I thought that I was just an ordinary girl,
But right there in that moment, it felt like time had frozen
When the angel said that God has chosen me.

2. I guess I'm not familiar with the concept,
Of carrying a baby who is born to be a king,
It feels a little daunting, this message without warning
But the angel said that God has chosen me.

BRIDGE (All)

I will hold my head up high,
I will leave my cares behind,
For I know that He will guide me on my way.
I will wave my fears goodbye,
For He's always by my side,
And I'm somehow in this story of extraordinary life!

3. Repeat verse 1

Mary

Coz the angel said that God has chosen me.
