

HOT TASK:

To write a letter from Lady Macbeth, to her husband, convincing him to kill King Duncan.

Descriptive piece, Macbeth and Banquo meeting witches

Text and author: Macbeth, William Shakespeare

Purpose: Persuasion

Form: Letter

Audience: Macbeth

Purpose: Entertain

Form: Description

Audience: Older readers

COLD TASK FOR NEXT UNIT:

To write a letter to persuade their family to go back to the Brecon Beacons

Capture, Sift and Sort

To develop language choices further. Focus on expanded noun phrases, semi colons and colons. Write together a description of the Three Witches.

Capture, Sift and Sort

Describe and create atmosphere through vocabulary choices.

To look at a range of texts to discover persuasive features.

Create, Refine and Evaluate

Write together a monologue for Macbeth, taking into consideration reasons why he should kill the king and reasons why he shouldn't.

Stimulate and Generate:

Investigate the main themes, looking at the Witches' prophecies and writing their own prophecy.

Stimulate and Generate

To watch clips, play songs and read through a child friendly version to understand story and collect vocabulary.

